Get hitched at the Everyman

The Everyman Theatre sits in the heart of the Georgian quarter on Hope Street in-between Liverpool's two cathedrals.

Boasting a stunning façade and contemporary interiors, the Everyman is a jaw-droppingly stylish inner-city location. Effectively three venues under one roof, we offer the unique opportunity to stage your ceremony in the theatre itself, before hosting the wedding breakfast in our bistro restaurant and your evening knees-up in our theatre bar.

Since the 1960s, the Everyman has cultivated an illustrious, star-studded reputation for innovative and imaginative theatre. In our current Stirling Prize-winning incarnation, we're applying that same dedication to creativity and eye for artistic detail to our wedding offer.

We work closely with all of our couples to create a truly bespoke experience, making every wedding at the everyman a distinctive event. Whether it's an all-singing all-dancing ceremony with lighting & sound design, or an informal, intimate affair, we offer the flexibility and expertise to cater for any vision, theatrical or otherwise

If you'd like to find out more about our weddings or would like to come in and have a look around, please email Ruth on events@everymanplayhouse.com or call 0151 708 3740.
